

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: AC331 Accounting for Environmental and Social Responsibility

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: AC313 or AC202

Description: Sustainable development concepts; Corporate environmental and social responsibility; Negative impacts of business activities on the environment and natural resources; Environmental management practices; Identification, collection and analysis of environment-related costs and earnings information; Environmental reporting and sustainability reporting.