

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: FN425 Financial Viability Study

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: FN major and 4th-year student status

Description: Various tools and techniques used in financial viability study; principles of and practice in developing business plans, feasibility studies of projects including new projects, expansions, non-current-asset replacements, project delays, and terminations of projects; real options and evaluations of long-term investments, a group project on a business feasibility study