

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: IS201 Management Information Systems

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: -

Description: Study important role of information, information systems, information technology and internet to organization. Components, application and types of information systems, information system acquisition, ethics and security.