

Criteria for Graduating with Honors According to Thammasat University Regulations, B.E. 2568 (2025)

Clause 67 There are two levels of degree with honor as follows:

1. First-Class Honor Degree

- (1) First-class honor degree is for graduates who achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.50 or higher and receive grade levels not lower than letter C in all courses studied.

2. Second-Class Honor Degree

- (2) Second-class honor degree is for graduates who have academic results in any one of the following cases:

- 2.1 Students must achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.50 or higher but have earned grades lower than letter C and have a cumulative grade point average in specific courses of not less than 2.00.
- 2.2 Students must achieve a cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or higher, provided that all courses in specific courses are not lower than letter C.

In addition to paragraph one, the dean, upon approval through the faculty committee, may establish specific criteria for curricula provided that such criteria do not conflict with Clause 67 and Clause 68.

Clause 68

Students who are eligible to receive degrees with honor must meet the requirements and must not have prohibited characteristics as follows:

1. Students studying a bachelor's degree in a four-year curriculum must complete the program within four academic years, and students studying a bachelor's degree in a six-year curriculum must complete the program within six academic years.
2. There must be courses that have been approved for transfer or received exemption not exceeding twenty-five percent of the total credits specified in the curriculum.
3. Students have never enrolled in any course repeatedly.
4. Students have never earned a letter grade of F or U in any course.
5. Students have never been disciplinarily punished to the level of probation or higher.

Note: The time counting according to (1) shall not include time in semesters where students received approval for academic leave or to study or work to enhance knowledge under university programs or projects approved by the dean or Rector. However, the total duration must not exceed one academic year.
